Re: Conditional Acceptance of Transfer of Notice of Intention, Cactus #1 and Serendipity #6, from Sprunger's Minerals to Larry Lehto, S/023/076, Juab County, Utah

Dear Mr. Lehto:

On February 12, 2001, the Division received two Transfers of Notice of Intention for small mining operations. The transfers are for the Cactus #1 (file number S/023/057) and Serendipity #6 (file number S/023/017) from Sprunger's Minerals to Larry Lehto. The Division could not complete the transfer process until an inspection could be performed of the sites. On October 3, 2001, the Cactus #1 site was inspected. At that same time, the Division was not able to get to the Serendipity #6; however, we were informed that the project has not changed since the last Division inspection was made at this site.

The Division Director accepted the transfers for these two projects as identified on the transfer forms and made them effective on November 5, 2001. The fully signed and executed transfers are enclosed for your records. The Division requires a permit fee be paid for each mine file. Therefore, this permit transfer is conditionally accepted contingent upon the Division's receipt of the $100.00 permit fee. Please submit the permit fee within the next 15 days (by November 23, 2001), or this permit will be revoked. A billing statement is enclosed for your use.

The Division hereby releases Mike Sprunger from any further mining and reclamation obligations at the Cactus #1 site and the Serendipity #6 site. Larry Lehto is now the party responsible for continued mining and reclamation of these two projects. Because of the very minimal disturbance at these two sites (0.1 acres at the Cactus #1 and 0.05 acres at the Serendipity #6), the Division has combined them into one project number, even though they are close to five miles apart. A new file number (S/023/076) has been assigned. Please be aware of the operational and reclamation practices associated with small mining notices as prescribed by rule R647-3-107, 108, and 109. A summary is enclosed for your use.

Thank you for your help in processing these transfers. If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact me at (801) 538-5286 or Tom Munson at 538-5321. We await your permit fee before November 23, 2001.

Sincerely,
